ARTIST BIOGRAPHY

Go Freek is an Australian electronic music producer and visionary architect of the "Gutter Tech" sound—a bold fusion of gritty house, tech-driven innovation, and immersive club energy. With nearly 100 million streams and an ARIA Gold certification for the groundbreaking collaboration "Define" with Dom Dolla, Go Freek has established himself as a leading force in contemporary electronic music.

Based in Australia with a global touring profile, Go Freek's productions have graced the decks of major international festivals including EDC Las Vegas, Beyond Wonderland, and Paradiso. His work has been featured across Beatport's top charts, multiple ARIA Club Chart #1 positions, and streaming platforms worldwide. Collaborations with global heavyweights such as Deadmau5, Dom Dolla, Crookers, and Steve Aoki underscore his standing in the international electronic music community.

Go Freek's artistic vision centers on pushing sonic boundaries while maintaining deep respect for club culture. His releases on Sweat It Out Records showcase a meticulous production approach, blending intricate sound design with infectious grooves built for both intimate club environments and massive festival stages. His DJ sets are known for their energy, precision, and ability to connect with diverse audiences across geographic and cultural boundaries.

Beyond production and performance, Go Freek represents a new generation of Australian electronic artists building international careers through authenticity, innovation, and relentless work ethic. Represented globally by TMRW Agency, he continues to expand his reach across Australia, Europe, Asia-Pacific, and beyond.
